- Special projects:
 - Ms Rathke is a a civil engineer and our computer teacher and she and ms Kilroy had conversations about Stem or Steam programs.
 - Students will use chrome books in the new innovation station (Stem Lab)
 - 1:1 initiative
 - The mens club has approved funding to change the computer lab to a chrome book lab for middle school 4-7
 - We can do coding and they will know this before 5 thgrade
 - We want the entire rooms to be movable. So Morgan has asked for desks that are. On wheels and are movable.
 - Stools that are triangles that would go under the desks neatly
 - Flexible seating area by the smart board and be used for little kids also used for students to be used with their laptop to do coding in a comfortable setting.

- Podium for teacher that is on wheels and can be used with her smart board and projector and laptop
- 3D printer to teach kids to print out their designs on the printer.
- Peak the interest of females in our school to know that they can move into those positions

Q: Is it fair to say that SCS will be the first school in the area that would have something like this?

A: We would be the first parish school

Cost: $ 12, 397

We are accepting interests in someone who may want to sponsor the lab.
