Wind down from a busy day of school in a calming and soothing class! Explore fun themes through quiet and reflective meditation and movements. In this class, students will learn to be present and mindful during meditation and stretches. Children often have trouble quieting their bodies and minds to hear God in their hearts. This class will help children realize the benefits of meditation, while relaxing their minds and bodies to reflect on their day. Our hope is to create a space that gives students time for quiet meditation while still being able to have fun with their peers. Prayer mats will be provided.
